

Did you
dream
you'd be a hero

someday who would grow up
and change the world some way?

Well, the world
you
changed
is mine,

it's true, and I wish you could see who I see in you.

I see a hero.

I see a light.

Living
by faith,

every day by my side. I see a hero.

I see a star.

Showing the way
just by being who

you are.
Best of all
I see who I hope to be – a hero like you are to me.

Every
truth you
teach, the prayers

that you say they will never be lost
or fade away.

All the hours you spend just being

my friend
are

heroic and brave

in every way.

(Oh I see a hero in you.)
