

Did you dream you'd be a hero someday who would grow up and change the world some way? Well, the world you changed is mine, it's true, and I wish you could see who I see in you.

I see a hero. I see a light.
Living by faith, every day by my side. I see a hero. I see a star. Showing the way just by being who you are. Best of all I see who I hope to be – a hero like you are to me.

Every truth you teach, the prayers that you say they will never be lost or fade away. All the hours you spend just being my friend are heroic and brave in every way.
