Love One Another: Song Story

This is a story about a young girl named Katie. Katie loved to play on the playground with her friends. Swinging on the swings was her favorite.

Ask: What's your favorite thing to do at the playground?

One day while Katie was swinging high on the swings, she noticed a boy sitting in a wheelchair all alone. He had a slight frown on his face. Katie recognized this boy from her class, but she never talked to him in class.

Teach the first two lines of the song. "As I have loved you, love one another. This new commandment, love one another."

Katie wanted to keep swinging, but she remembered what she learned in primary about loving one another. She wondered if the boy felt sad watching all the kids play on the playground.

Katie decided to get off the swing and talk to this boy. "Hi," Katie said nervously. "What's your name?"

The boy in the wheelchair smiled. "I'm Jacob." "Would you like to play with me?" Katie asked.

Teach the next line of the song. "By this shall men know, ye are my disciples."

"Yes! Can I teach you a new game?" Jacob asked, with an excited gleam in his eye.

Katie nodded and sat next to Jacob. She felt happy that she was able to make a new friend that day. She was also happy that she remembered what she learned in primary about loving others.

Teach the final line of the song. "If he have love one to another."
