

When He Comes Again – Scratch & Match

Supplies:

- Cardstock
- Laminating Pouch or Contact Paper
- Silver craft paint
- Dish Soap
- Quarter – for scratching

How to Make the Scratch Off's:

- Print the words or images below on cardstock. Cut them out into individual pieces. Then, laminate or cover the pages in contact paper.
- Mix 2 parts paint with 1 part dish soap. My silver paint was very thin, so I added 1-part dark blue paint for better coverage, 1-part silver paint, and 1-part dish soap.
- Paint on 3-4 thin coats of your paint soap mixture, covering the words or pictures. Allow to dry fully between additional layers.

How to Play:

Sing through When He Comes Again first, before introducing your activity.

Then, tell the children something happened to your clues! Someone hid them!! Can they help you reveal the clues and then find their match?

Have 2 children come up and scratch off one of the symbols. You can separate them with one from each match on separate sides of the board to make matches a little easier, like for Junior Primary, or mix them all together.

Sing through the song again after each set of 2 is scratched off, and you'll get tons of repetition in and kids eager to sing to participate!

Extension/Alternate Activities:

- Have the children help assemble the song in order, as they start to make matches!
- Keep the two words/pictures in a row together, to simplify the activity or spend less time overall on this activity. Have the kids scratch off the pair together and try to put it in sequential order in the song.
- Skip the scratch off and hide the images around the room. Have 2 children go on a "hunt" and bring 2 symbols or words up to the board.
- Pass out the scratch game to individual classes (or rows) one set at a time. They'll scratch off the game pieces, then decode them!

when he comes again...
