

Lucky Charms Review Game

The kids will love this fun review game that includes Kid's favorite cereal – Lucky Charms! Use it for St Patrick's day or just for a fun themed singing time anytime of the year. It's perfect to use to repeat one song over and over or to sing with a mix of songs.

How to Play:

Presort or simply pre-bag a small amount of Lucky Charms cereal into snack size Ziploc bags. In a pinch, you could also simply pour a small amount of cereal into their hands.

Have a child come up and randomly select one baggie of cereal. Have them shout out the first shape they spot! In the presorted bags, it would all be one symbol plus Lucky Charms cereal pieces. Have the child find the matching way to sing card.

Sing through your selected song with the fun way to sing decided by the Lucky Charms shapes! Repeat until you're ready to move on to a different song.

Extension Activities:

Assign one song to each Lucky Charm shape instead of a way to sing. When the shape is selected, find the matching song and sing through it. You can write your song choices ahead of time on the shape cards included.

Play the game Skittles style – Have them try to guess which marshmallow shape they picked. If they guessed correctly, they get to pick any song to sing! Otherwise, sing your selected song.

Play this as a match game! Print out 2 of each of the 9 cards (or whichever ones you want to include). Flip them all over and mix them up. Make sure you print on cardstock or layer a colored paper on the back so they can't see through the paper! Then, have them flip 2 until they find a match, then sing through your match with your selected song or mix of songs.

Hand each child one Lucky Charm, randomly assigned. Have the children stand up when their shape is drawn and sing through the song. Or draw two randomly, and have those two groups sing, then repeat! This makes for a fun and unique mixer to include a variety of kids.
