

A Year of Singing Time Holidays – Planning Calendar

How to Fill-in and Use this Planning Overview:

You can print out the color-coded version and simply refer to it throughout the year as a reference point of what date are coming up to help you plan out your weeks. It's filled in with the approximate dates, some holidays shift dates so they are best approximations.

The second option is you can fill in the blank second sheet with your own dates. You can either fill in all your dates or get started with the dates you want to include, and then print and fill in the rest as you have confirmed dates!
