

Seek the Lord Early Crossword Puzzle

How to Play:

- Sing through Seek the Lord Early to help review the words before introducing the activity.
- After singing, introduce the activity. You can hide the clues or keep them on the board.
- Each time you sing through a verse, give one clue and have the kids think of the word. Let one of them fill it in on the poster!
- Have children take turns coming up and filling in the crossword puzzle and singing through the song together.
- Continue giving clues until you've completed the entire puzzle!

Print Guide:

- Page 2 or 3 – 1-page option to hand out individually – black and white or color
- Page 4-7 – 4-page printable for the whiteboard with clues attached
- Page 8-12 – 4-page colorful printable poster and a separate page for the clues

Extension Activities:

- Give each class a crossword puzzle to work on while you sing as a group!
- After you solve the crossword puzzle, make each word in the puzzle a "Secret word." When you come to that word in the song, clap or hum instead of singing the word.
- Create a few different crossword puzzles. Work through each one while you sing. As you teach a new verse, solve a new crossword puzzle!
- Add a hand action to match the keyword! Use the action instead of singing the word.
- Have the kids color in a picture in the margins for each keyword.
