

Seek the Lord Early Dot to Dot

How to Play:

- Sing through Seek the Lord Early once before introducing this activity.
- Post up the pages you'd like to include. You can do just the first set (seek the Lord – page 3-5), just the second set (in Scriptures & Prayer – page 7-9), or just the 3 symbols (seek, scriptures, prayer – page 3, 8, 9). There's also a small 1-page printable of each (page 2 and 6). If you plan to include all 6 pages (set 1 and 2) then you might consider posting one set first, then adding the next.

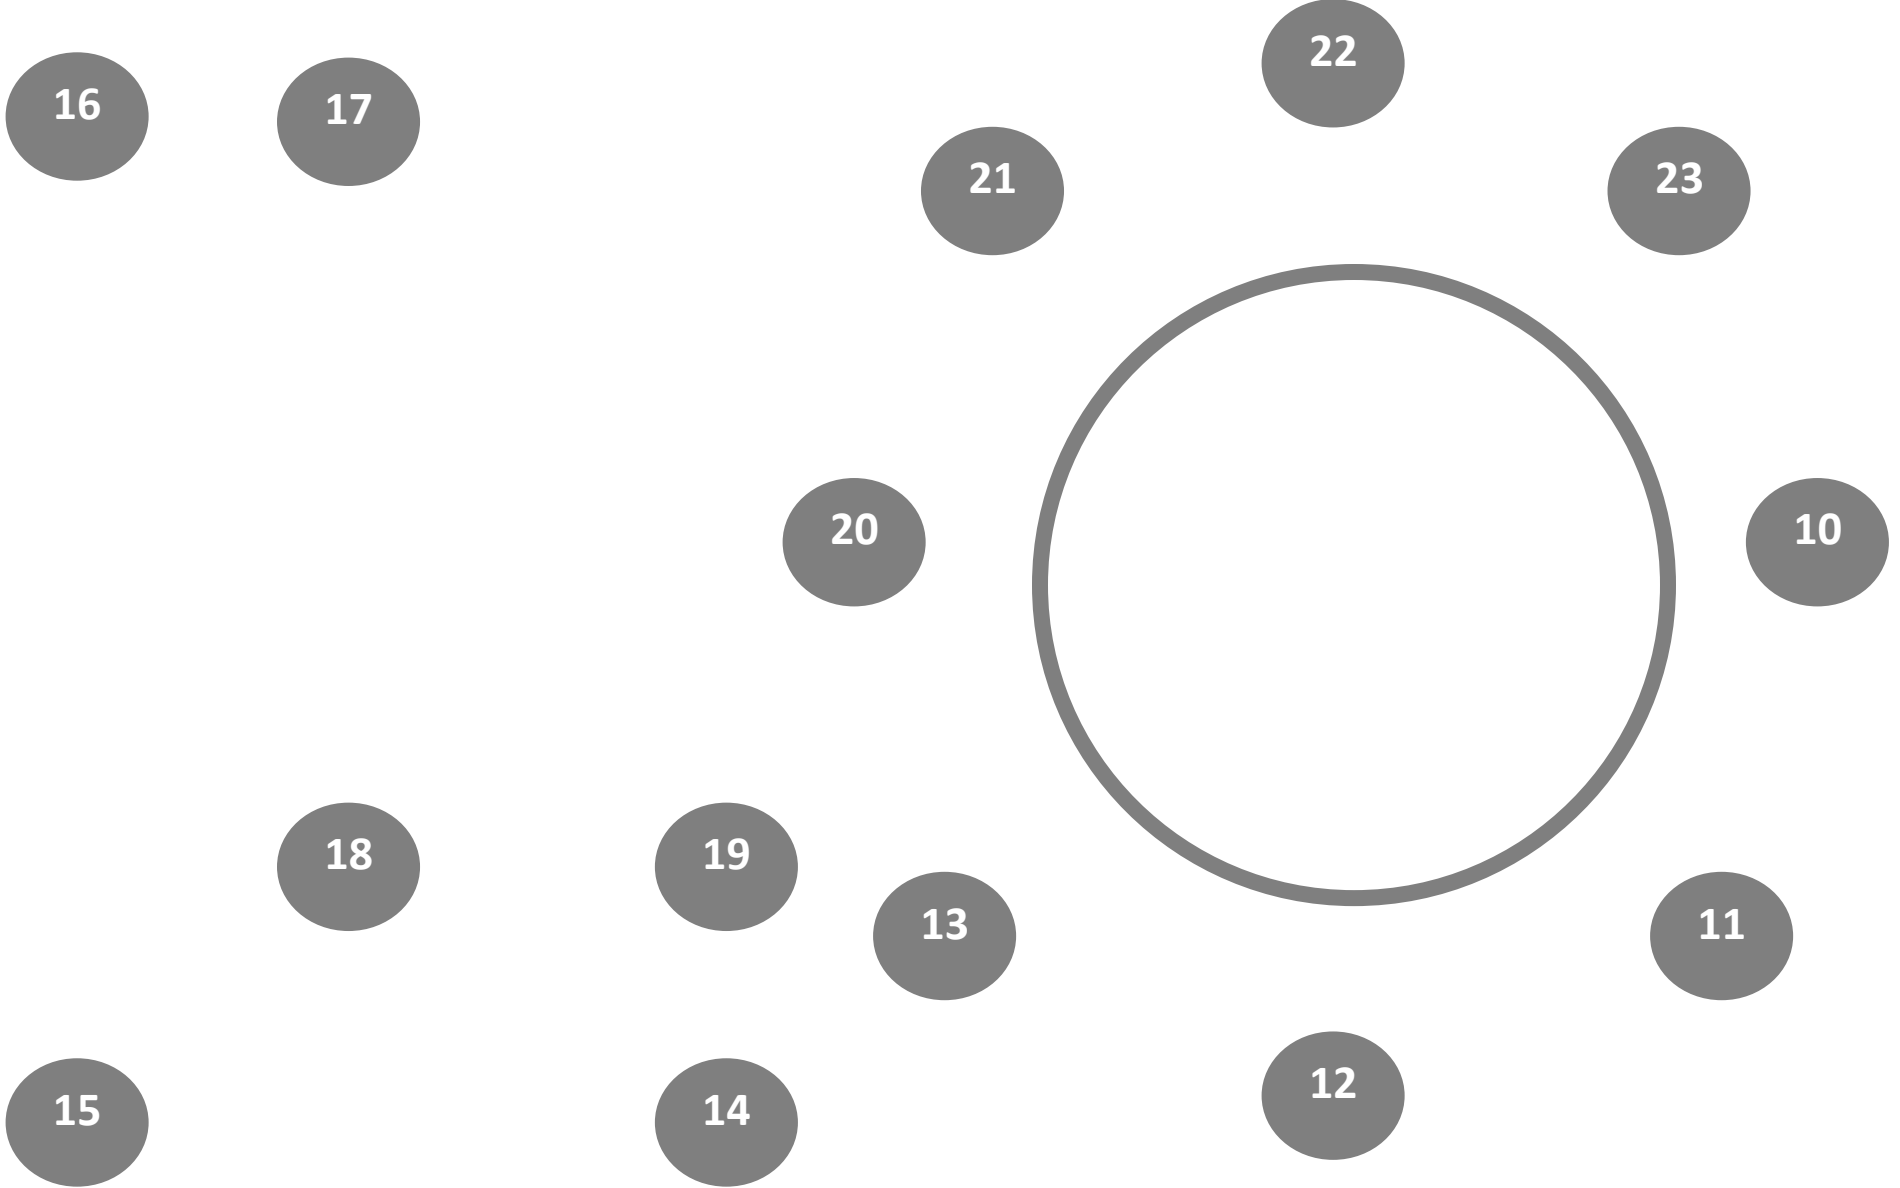

- I recommend doing just the 3 symbols for Junior Primary and including the word dot-to-dot for Senior Primary.
- Ask the children what they notice. When they call out that they spot a red and green dot, ask the kids what they think those are for? Explain the directions on how the activity will operate.
- Directions: The first child will come up reverently and connect the first line from 1 to 2, then return to their seat and pass the marker down the row to the next child. They will come up reverently and connect the line now from 2 to 3, returning reverently. If the kids run or goof around with the marker, it will be snatched, and they will have to wait until you start the song again the next time through.
- Sing through Seek the Lord Early while the children reverently take turns helping to fill in the dot-to-dot. When the song ends, ask for guesses of what the picture might be. Start the song again while new helpers come up to continue the picture.
- What ways can seek the Lord? How do you seek the Lord? Testify how simple actions add up like in the dot-to-dot to build faith.

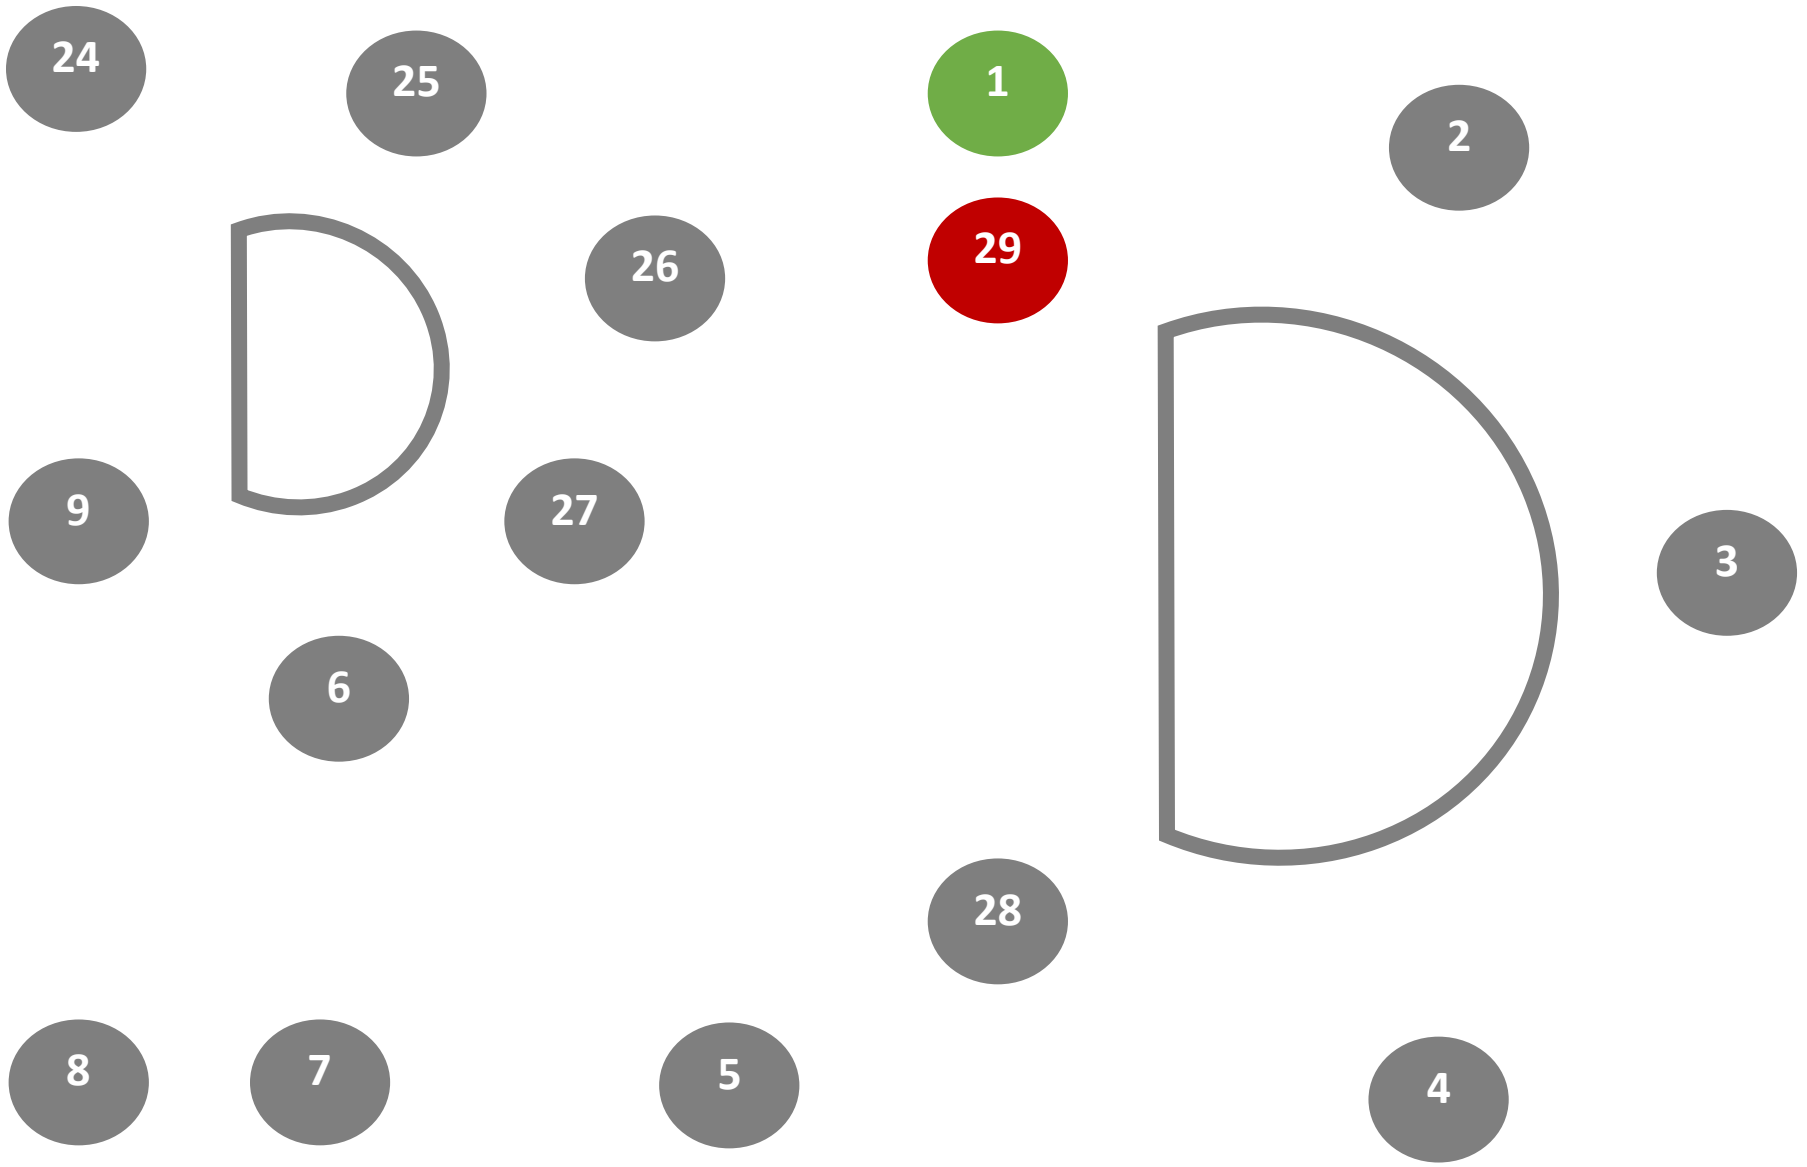

Extension Activities:

- You can use the first set for the 2nd verse, if you would prefer to use this activity for the 2nd verse. Then, after the kids have completed the dot-to-dot, create a word map from the picture. You'll draw lines out from the page on the white board and add ways to seek the Lord (obey, listen to the prophets, keep the commandments, feel his love, seek early).
- Pass out the individual page dot-to-dot pictures. Have the children sing with you and have everyone add the next line in sequence every time you sing words referencing Heavenly Father or Jesus Christ (Lord, He, Him, Father). You can stomp or clap while you sing to signal the children on the keyword.
- Add lines to the dot-to-dot together as a Primary after singing through the song based on how well they sang (1-5 lines). This is great for reviewing!
