

Funny General Conference Moments Singing Time

How to Play:

- To get started, remind the children that General Conference is coming up (or just passed). Share how you thought it would be fun to hear some funny stories from the prophets and apostles.
- Pick any of the funny general conference video clips below and watch it together as a Primary.
- Share what fun way you will use to sing through the next song that relates to the video clip. They're all included below right below the video. Of course, you can adapt any of my ideas!
- Then sing your choice of Primary song with the silly action! You can use songs you are currently working, a song that goes well with the funny video, or repeat a few favorite songs from this list that will work perfectly for celebrating General Conference!
