

I Hope They Call Me on a Mission Lyrics Scramble

How to Play:

1. Before primary, write out 2 copies of the lyrics. Write out the first copy of the lyrics, then write another set of lyrics, but with the phrases written backwards. Cut the phrases into strips.
2. Introduce the activity by writing one of the phrases backwards on the board.
3. Review both verses of I Hope They Call Me On a Mission at the beginning of primary.
4. Then, ask the children if they have unscrambled the mixed up phrase. When they guess it correctly, they're ready for the activity!
5. Bring out the rest of the mixed up phrases. Post the phrases written correctly on the board as well.
6. Sing through the song again!
7. Have the children work together to pair each unscrambled phrase with its match.
8. Pair a few unscrambled phrases and repeat the song until you finish matching all the phrases!

Extension Activities:

- Give each class their own set of unscrambled words to match with the correctly written phrases! Use envelopes to keep all the phrases together.
- For a silly run through, have the children try to say the scrambled phrases! Once you match the unscrambled phrases, have the children try to slowly sing the scrambled phrases.
- Give each class a few phrases. Have them sing only the phrases they have. When other groups are singing, you can have them sing or snap along.
