

I Hope They Call Me on a Mission Silly Word Swap

How to Play:

1. Before primary, prepare phrases with one word of the phrase swapped for a silly word. Type or write out each silly phrase.
2. Begin primary by singing both verses of I Hope They Call Me On a Mission.
3. Then, bring out one of the silly phrases (be prepare for lots of laughs) and see if the children can swap the silly word with the correct song lyric.
4. Sing through the song again, and bring out another silly phrase! While you sing, have a child come up and cross out the silly word and write the correct word on the board.
5. Continue singing through the song and correcting the silly phrases!
6. Conclude with your testimony of sharing the gospel and serving as a missionary.

Extension Activities:

- Make it a race! Give each class their own set of silly words and see which class can replace the silly words with the correct lyrics the fastest!
- On one side of the whiteboard, post the silly phrases. On the other side of the board, write out the correct song lyrics in mixed up order. Connect the silly phrases with the correct lyric with a line.
- Have the children come up with their own silly phrases! See what they can come up with and have them quiz each other to see if they can find the correct song lyrics. You can use our Mad Lib fill in the blank cheat sheet below and then fill in each of the words they picked.
