

Come Follow Me Primary Music for Singing Time

Printable Lists for all 4 Primary Years

How to Use These Song Charts:

- Print out a copy of all 4 years and store them in your Singing Time Binder.
- I recommend putting the current year's song list as the very front page inside or on the back of your binder so you can easily refer to it throughout the year while planning.
- Look over the list before the new calendar year and pick out which song you would like to teach throughout the year. You can highlight, make notes, add in your own songs, etc. Make a mess of it all you might need to; you can always print another fresh copy when you're ready!
- Use the additional resources below to help you with your planning and picking out which songs to include.
- After you have a plan in mind, schedule a meeting with your Primary Presidency or simply send off an email with your thoughts on the song list for the upcoming year. Take in their feedback and counsel together so everyone is on the same page. This will save you from miscommunications later and help everyone be united in the plan moving forward.

Additional Planning & Printable Resources:

- 4-Year Song List Comparison Chart – See all 4 years of songs compared by year and in alphabetical order to better see the overlap on any song recommendations and plan across multiple years even easier!
- Suggested 4-Year Rotation of Primary Songs – If you need help on where to start, head over to this recommended list of songs to teach across all 4 years. The choices were made based on the song lists below, considering songs that were repeated for multiple months, and adding a variety of topics and melody. Of course, this should just be a starting point where you can then customize your own list to fit your Primary!
- Printable Monthly/Yearly Song Lists – When you've picked out all your songs, plan of which songs to work on across the whole year. I like to include 2-3 songs each Sunday. With a few minutes prep, you can have a plan for the year for you and the pianist!
- Year Overview Singing Time Planner – Use this helpful 52-week guide with possible holidays, practices, and important dates to remember. Plus, a blank one for you to fill in with your own specific important dates.
