

I Want to Live the Gospel Four Corners

How to Play:

1. Before primary, print out the lyrics to I Want to Live the Gospel, and divide the lyrics into 4 equal sections. If you only review one verse, this will equal to two lines per section.
2. Review the first verse of the song and chorus at the beginning of primary. Once the children are confident with the words, see if they're up for a fun game!
3. Assign each corner of the room a number. Tape up one lyric section to each corner of the room.
4. Divide the class into 4 groups. Try to have a mix of ages within each group. Assign each group a number and have them stand in their assigned corner.
5. Have each group read through their assigned lyrics and begin singing the song. Have each group sing their assigned section!
6. When you finish the song, rotate clockwise, and continue singing so children have an opportunity to sing the whole song!

Extension Activities:

- Have the children randomly choose which corner they want to be in! Have them sing their assigned section, then have them choose the next corner they want to be in!
- Sing through the song and randomly stop the music. Choose a number and have the children in that corner sing the next few words of the song!
- If you are practicing multiple songs, have each corner be a different song! Have children practice singing through lots of different songs!
