

Before we came here we all lived in Heaven, with Heavenly
Father and Jesus His son.

It's where they taught us to choose good from evil, to be prepared for the battle to come.

For Satan tried to destroy us forever, to make us turn from the things we were taught.

But nothing

could keep us from

choosing

Jesus for we loved the plan of God.

And we will choose him again, for He's our Savior and friend. He'll help and guide us each day and

He will show
us the way to be the best us we possibly can.

Oh, we will choose him, we will choose him again.

And now we're on earth to prove we'll be faithful, keep His commandments

and follow
His ways.
For we're still fighting for good
over evil

not with a sword, but with courage and faith.

And we will rise up and stand with our Savior.

Forever
true to the things

we've been taught and nothing can keep us from choosing Jesus for we love the plan of God.
