I know that my Redeemer lives. What comfort this sweet sentence gives!

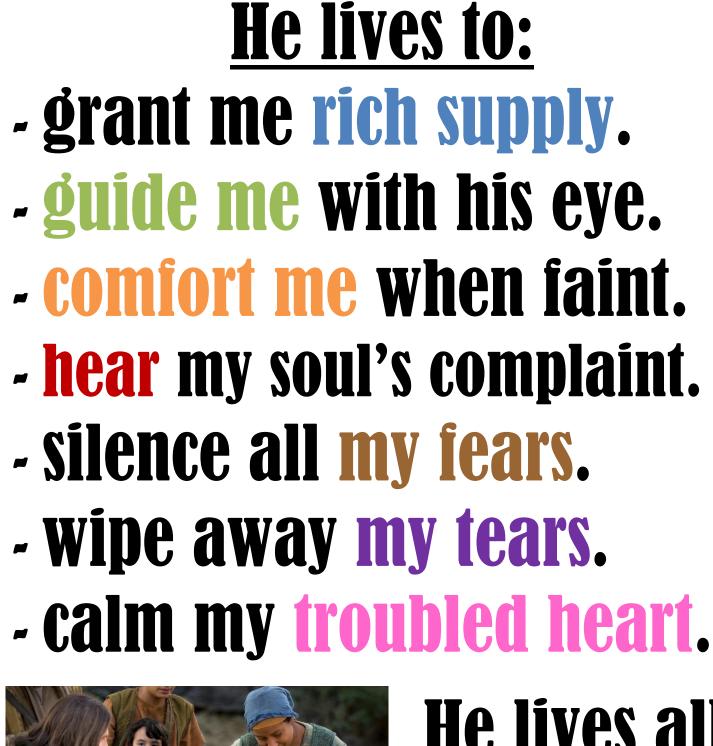

He lives:
- he lives, who once was dead.
- my ever-living Head.
- to bless me with his love.
- to plead for me above.
- my hungry soul to feed.
- to bless in time of need.

He lives to:

- grant me rich supply.
- guide me with his eye.
- comfort me when faint.
- hear my soul's complaint.
- silence all my fears.
- wipe away my tears.
- calm my troubled heart.

He lives all blessings to impart.

He lives my kind wise heav'nly Friend.

He lives:

- and loves me to the end.
- and while he lives, I'll sing.
- my Prophet, Priest, and King.
- and grants me daily breath.
- and I shall conquer death.
- my mansion to prepare.
- to bring me safely there.

He lives! All glory to his name!
He lives, my Savior, still the same.
Oh, sweet the joy this sentence gives:
"I know that my Redeemer lives!"
