

When We Seek Him Christmas Dance Scarves

How to Play:

1. At the beginning of singing time, review the words to the first verse and chorus of When We Seek Him.
2. Then, pass out dance scarves. Give one to each child or give a handful to the teacher and have them pass the scarves to their class to make it go a little quicker!
3. Display the pictures of the 4 Christmas dance scarves shapes. Demonstrate each scarves pattern as you point to the picture. Have the kids try making the shapes with you!
4. Then, put the shapes in order and have the kids create the shapes in order.
5. Add in some music! Try singing through the song slowly and singing along with the first verse and chorus.
6. Continue practicing and have some fun with the Christmas shapes!

Extension Activities:

- Have the kids rearrange the order of the shapes so that you create different shapes while you sing. For example, you could arrange the shapes so that they are in backwards order! Try singing it with a different pattern.
- Use our simple dance scarves action cards! Put the cards in a basket and have the kids randomly choose 4 of the cards. Sing through the song using those actions, then choose 4 new ones!
- Instead of using the pattern, choose keywords for each shape. Every time you sing that word, create the shape with your dance scarves. For example, create the “gift” shape when you sing “seek.” You could also choose entire phrases so that you have enough time to make the shape!

Christmas Dance Scarves Shapes:

1. Star: Create a star shape by starting in one corner, waving the scarf to the next point until you create a star!
2. Christmas Tree: Create a simple “Christmas Tree” shape by making a big triangle with the dance scarves
3. Stocking: Create the stocking shape by making a large “J” in the air.
4. Wrapped Gift: Create a gift by waving your scarf in a large square shape.
