Activity Instructions:

1. This activity includes hand actions for the first three verses! You can find hand actions for all 8 verses with our INSTANT Primary Singing membership.
2. These hand actions can be used to introduce or review this fun song! I've included an outline of the actions for the first 3 verses later in this post. If you've already started teaching his song in primary, start by reviewing the first verse.
3. Say or sing the first phrase and have your primary kiddos repeat after you. While singing, "Book of Mormon stories," put your hands out to imitate the pages of a book. When you sing the phrase, "teacher tells to me," cup your hands near your mouth to imitate a megaphone.
4. Continue working through the first verse phrase by phrase. Use simple actions to represent each phrase to help the kids remember the lyrics.
5. Once you've taught all the hand actions, sing through the entire verse using the actions!
6. Continue practicing the first verse or start teaching the hand actions to the second verse! Totally up to you!

Extension Activities:

- Use this activity once you've introduced multiple verses of this song! Post each action words poster on the board and cover up the title. See if the kids can correctly match each poster to the corresponding verse!
- Split the class into small groups! Have each group come up with their own set of actions for a verse and teach their actions to the class!
- Silent Words! Each time you do an action, hum or sing the lyric that goes with the action. Or switch it up and only sing the action words!
