

General Conference Apostle Trivia

How to Play:

1. Prepare by cutting out the trivia word strips and pictures of the apostles. Put the pictures up on the board before primary.
2. At the beginning of primary, share your excitement for General Conference. You might ask the children if they have any special family traditions around conference time. This is also a great time to sing a primary song about prophets.
3. Challenge the kids to see if they can name all the apostles. This will help them be better prepared for the game! You can use the pictures and help them out if they miss a few.
4. Ask the children if they are up for some trivia! Read one of the trivia word strips aloud. See if the kids can correctly guess the apostle(s) that the question applies to. Have the children raise their hand to answer. If they guess correctly, have them come match the trivia question to the apostle. If there is more than one answer, you can put those apostles next to each other on the board.
5. Each time you answer a trivia question correctly, choose another song to sing. You can review any primary song you are teaching or focus on songs about prophets.
6. Continue matching the trivia questions to the apostles until you have correctly matched all 10 trivia questions. Encourage your primary kids to quiz their families at home!

Extension Activities:

- Have a competition between two sides of the classroom! Keep a tally on the board for both teams. As you read the questions, see which side can correctly match the trivia question to the apostle picture. Have a small prize at the end for the side that correctly answers the most trivia questions!
- Write a primary song on the back of each trivia word strip. After answering the trivia question, sing the indicated song together.
- Give each class an equal number of trivia word strips. Have each class work together to solve their trivia questions. Then, have them quiz the rest of the class!
