2026 Old Testament Sing-Along Playlist

About this Playlist:

This playlist includes all of the 2026 Come, Follow Me Old Testament suggested song lists from the outline provided within the manual.

Each sing-along video was played with a piano, guitar, or ukulele accompaniment and a personal sing-along so the Primary children can feel like they are singing right alongside a Primary Music Leader as they practice these songs.

The lyrics are displayed on the screen for visual learners and to help the children learn the correct lyrics. The audio can be played over a speaker without showing the video to see how well the children are learning the lyrics without additional aid.

Copyright Notice & Use Restrictions:

These sing-along videos cannot be downloaded, edited, shared, or modified in any way. If you'd like to share these sing-along videos, simply share the link to the original post, share the PDF files included within this document, or share the direct link to the YouTube playlist or individual videos. Please share with respect for this integrity of this content!

The song compositions and lyrics are copyrighted material. Permission has been sought from each artist to provide proper permissions for use. Any modification or alterations does not fall under the use permissions and is copyright infringement both to the original composers and to our creative use and production in creating these videos. Thank you for your understanding.

Ideas for Use:

- Save this PDF to your computer to quickly and easily pull up sing-along videos during singing time or to use the links to share with your ward.
- Print out the 2-page QR playlist and post it on your bulletin board! This can be a go-to resource for everyone in your ward building to reference and use throughout the year as you learn and practice the different songs.
- Share this PDF with families so they can practice the songs at home and include more Primary music in their home Come, Follow Me study and Sunday worship.
- Print out the quarter-page practice sheet to give to your Primary children. Fill in the rows with your song list, print, and then cut into fourths. Invite the children to practice their speaking part and your program songs. You can reward everyone for their efforts (fully completed or not) with a party after your Primary Program or during your program practice that could include popcorn, ice cream, cookies, pizza, stickers, bookmarks, small toys, a karaoke or dance party, watch a movie or a Friend to Friend broadcast in place of the 2nd hour block, or whatever works best for your Primary!
