The Creation Rhythm Partners

How to Play:

- Your primary children will love trying this partner pattern! This rhythm pattern includes a lot of repetition, so you'll catch on in no time!
- I've created a partner rhythm pattern that focuses on the chorus of this song. It pairs beautifully with the playful, upbeat nature of this song. Let's jump right in!
- Grab a copy of the printable pattern later in this post for a visual as you demonstrate the pattern.
- Sing through The Creation once at the beginning of singing time.
- Alright, everyone stand up and turn to the person next to you! Ask a teacher ahead of time to help you demonstrate the pattern. Start by clapping twice as you sing, "Night and the –" and clap both hands across to your partner for the word, "day." Repeat these two actions for the next line, "Sun and the rain."
- Next, pat your knees five times as you sing, "Mountains and mor-ning dew."
- You'll repeat this entire sequence for the following line – "Rivers that / flow, Flowers that / grow / fire-flies fish-es too."
- Next, alternate stomping three times each foot for the line, "Fruit on the trees, all the color you see." Now, FREEZE! Spin as you sing, "Honeybees."
- Alternate between a double clap and a single-handed clap across to your partner for the line, "Last, but not / least" "Adam and" / "Eve." Show off your best pose for the last line of the song!
