He knows the stars that shine at night. He made the burning sun.

And ev'ry creature,
great or small—He numbers ev'ry one.

He also knows my face and voice. He loves me perfectly. Our Heav'nly Father knows
all things; He knows
and cares for me.

He hears the sound
of ocean waves that crash upon the shore.

And when the rain clouds fill the sky, He hears the thunder roar.

He also hears the quiet words I pray
on bended knee.
Our Heav'nly Father
hears all things; He hears and cares for me.

He loves me whether I am sad or happy
or in pain.

He understands my troubles, and He even knows my name.

For He's my Heav'nly
Father; His child
I'll always be.

Our Heav'nly Father
loves us all; He loves
and cares for me.
